THANK YOU

Thank you very much for downloading the 5-track Andromeda EP. This rather creepy selection of mixes was put together for Halloween and originally released exclusively on Twitter to say thank you to all the fans that have supported me while I've been working on writing and promoting my debut electronic dark wave album Ambients.

Please help me out by both giving the tracks a listen and spreading the word about this free EP and my music in general. It's been a lot of hard work trying to establish a fan base and it's always great to chat to new people and hear what they have to say about everything.

As well as a single mix of the fan-favourite Andromeda, the EP also contains a new track entitled The Enfield Poltergeist which I put together especially for this release, its inspiration comes from one of the most famous paranormal investigations in English history. If you can, read up on it and try to decide for yourself whether it was a hoax or not...

Tracklisting:

1. Andromeda (Single Mix) (2:37)
2. Shock! Horror! (Sinister Mix) (3:30)
3. The Enfield Poltergeist (3:49)
4. Long Lost... (Extended Mix) (5:05)
5. Getting Safer (Ghostsmut's (per)Version) (4:36)

The original versions of tracks 1, 2, 4 and 5 are taken from Ambients which is now available worldwide as a 14-track MP3 download on Amazon MP3, iTunes, eMusic and many other digital retailers. Remix on track 5 by Ghostsmut.

For more details as well as information on how you can get your hands on a Limited Edition CD copy of the album, check out the Ambients mini-site at:

Thank you so much for all your support,
